God created the heavens and the earth and everything was very good. Adam and Eve could eat from any tree, except one, in the Garden of Eden. God warned them that if they ate from it they would die

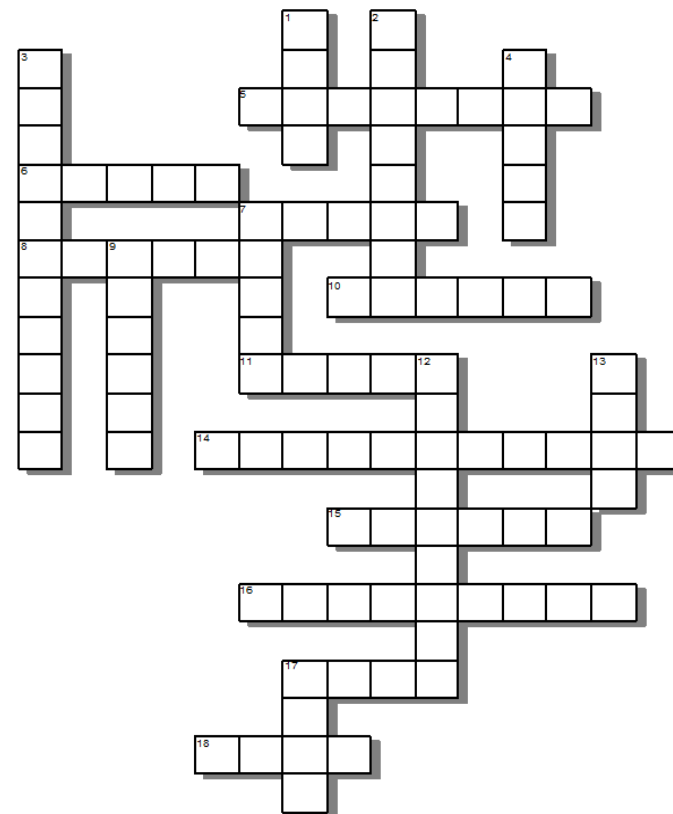

Later, another man showed that he would obey God. Abraham trusted God enough that he would even sacrifice his own son, Isaac. God provided a ram as a substitute sacrifice. This was a picture of the substitute who would be sacrificed for our sins 2,000 years later.
